

PRESS RELEASE

SPMCIL received order for manufacturing sports medals for Commonwealth Games 2010 Delhi and would be appointed as its official Ticket Printing Agency

Security Printing and Minting Corporation of India Limited (SPMCIL) has received order from Organising Committee Commonwealth Games 2010 Delhi for manufacturing around 1400 sports medals of different variety. These medals are likely to be awarded to winners of different sports events during Commonwealth Games. India Government Mints (Units of SPMCIL) have impeccable and glorious distinction of minting coins and medallions. IGMs also manufactures medals like Bharat Ratna, Padma Vibhushan, Padma Bhushan, etc and is in the past associated with prestigious national and international events viz manufacture of sports medals for IX Asian Games, 1982 Delhi, Commonwealth Youth Games, 2008, Pune, Military World Games, 2007, etc.

SPMCIL would also be appointed as Official Ticket Printing agency of Commonwealth Games 2010 Delhi. These tickets having enhanced security features would be printed at India Security Press (ISP), Nashik Road. The Admission Tickets for Asian Games 1982, Delhi were also printed by ISP, Nashik. ISP, Nashik has distinction of catering to security printing requirement of various government departments and acclaimed organizations viz Passport, Visa, Postage stamps, Post Card, Inland letter, Envelops, Non Postal Adhesive, Judicial and Non Judicial Stamps, MICR cheques, Degree Certificates, etc.

SPMCIL with its headquarters at Jawahar Vyapar Bhawan, New Delhi is wholly owned Miniratna category-I status Public Sector Undertaking under Ministry of Finance. It has four mints/two Currency Note Presses/two Security Presses and one Security Mill under its Charge. The company is diversifying into other Security Printing Products, Medallions, etc as a part of its Marketing initiatives.
