

GOVT. MINTS TO MAKE MEDALS FOR COMMONWEALTH GAMES

Security Printing and Minting Corporation of India Ltd (SPMCIL) has received an order from the organising Committee Commonwealth Games-2010 Delhi for manufacturing around 1,400 sports medals, to be awarded to winners of different sports during the upcoming Games.

India Government Mints (Units of SPMCIL) have the distinction of minting coins and medallions.

IGMs also manufacture medals such as Bharat Ratna, Padma Vibhushan and Padma Bhushan and has, in the past, been associated with prestigious national and international events, that is, manufacture of sports medals for IX Asian Games, 1982 Delhi; Commonwealth Youth Games, 2008, Pune; Military World Games, 2007, and so on.

An official release also said that SPMCIL would also be appointed as Official Ticket Printing agency of CWG-2010.

These tickets having enhanced security features would be printed at India Security Press (ISP), Nashik Road.

The Admission Tickets for Asian Games 1982, Delhi were also printed by ISP, Nashik.
